JURY TRIAL WAIVER AND ARBITRATION CLAUSE. By signing, you agree to this Jury Trial Waiver and Arbitration Clause ("Clause").

Background and Scope
What is arbitration?	An alternative to court.	In arbitration, a third party ("Arbiter") solves Disputes in a hearing ("hearing"). You, related third parties, and we, waive the right to go to court. Such "parties" forgo jury trials.
Is it different from court and jury trials?	Yes.	The hearing is private and less formal than court. Arbiters may limit pre-hearing fact finding, called "discovery." The decision is final. Courts rarely overturn Arbiters.
Who does the Clause cover?	You, Us, and Others.	This Clause governs the parties, their heirs, successors, assigns, and third parties related to any Dispute.
Which Disputes are covered?	All Disputes.	In this Clause, the word "Disputes" has the broadest possible meaning. This Clause governs all "Disputes" involving the parties. This includes all claims even indirectly related to your application and agreements with us. This includes claims related to information you previously gave us. It includes all past agreements. It includes, as may be applicable, any additional periods, extensions, renewals, and plans. It includes claims related to damaged property, buyout, reinstatement, loss, damage, warranty, maintenance, collection, possession, privacy, and customer information. It includes claims related to setting aside this Clause. It includes claims about the Clause's validity and scope. It includes claims about whether to arbitrate.
Are you waiving rights?	Yes.	You waive your rights to: 1. Have juries solve Disputes. 2. Have courts, other than small-claims courts, solve Disputes. 3. Serve as a private attorney general or in a representative capacity. 4. Be in a class action.
Are you waiving class action rights?	Yes.	COURTS AND ARBITERS WON'T ALLOW CLASS ACTIONS. You waive your rights to be in a class action, as a representative and a member. Only individual arbitration, or small-claims courts, will solve Disputes. You waive your right to have representative claims. Unless reversed on appeal, if a court invalidates this waiver, then the agreement to arbitrate will be void, and Disputes will be resolved by a judge, but not a jury.
What law applies?	The Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA").	This transaction involves interstate commerce. Thus, the FAA governs. If a court finds the FAA doesn't apply, and the finding can't be appealed, then the state law where you were when you signed, governs. The Arbiter must apply substantive law consistent with the FAA. The Arbiter must follow statutes of limitation and privilege claims.
Can the parties try to solve Disputes first?	Yes.	We can try to solve Disputes if you call us at (877) 557-3769 . If this doesn't solve the Dispute, mail us written notice, within 100 days of the Dispute date. In your notice, tell us the details and how you want to solve it. We will try to solve the Dispute. If we make a written offer ("Settlement Offer"), you can reject it and arbitrate. If we don't solve the Dispute, either party may start arbitration. To start arbitration, contact an Arbiter or arbitration group listed. No party will disclose settlement proposals to the Arbiter during arbitration.
How should you contact us?	By mail.	Send mail to: Snap RTO LLC Attention: Arbitration. P.O. Box 26561, Salt Lake City, UT 84126. You can call us or use certified mail to confirm receipt.
Can small-claims court solve some Disputes?	Yes.	Each party has the right to arbitrate, or to go to small-claims court if the small-claims court has the power to hear the Dispute. Arbitration will solve all Disputes that the small-claims court does not have the power to hear. If there is an appeal from small-claims court, or if a Dispute changes so that the small-claims court loses the power to hear it, then the Dispute will only be heard by an Arbiter.
Do other options exist?	Yes.	Both parties may use lawful self-help remedies. This includes set-off or repossession and sale of the Property. Both parties may seek remedies which don't claim money damages. This includes pre-judgment seizure, injunctions, or equitable relief.
Will this Clause continue to govern?	Yes, unless otherwise agreed.	The Clause stays effective, unless the parties sign an agreement stating it doesn't. The Clause governs if you rescind the transaction. It governs if you default, renew, prepay, or pay. It governs if you terminate, if you reinstate, and if you return the Property. It governs if your Agreement is impacted by bankruptcy. The Clause remains effective, despite a transaction's termination, amendment, expiration, or performance.

Process

How does arbitration start?	Mailing a notice.	Either party may mail the other a request to arbitrate, even if a lawsuit has been filed. The notice should describe the Dispute and relief sought. The receiving party must mail a response within 20 days. If you mail the demand, you may choose the arbitration group. Or, your demand may state that you want the parties to choose a local Arbiter. If related third parties or we mail the demand, you must respond in 20 days. Your response must choose an arbitration group or propose a local Arbiter. If it doesn't, we may choose the group.
Who arbitrates?	AAA, JAMS, or an agreed Arbiter.	You may select the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") (1-800-778-7879) http://www.adr.org or JAMS (1-800-352-5267) http://www.jamsadr.com . The parties may also agree in writing to a local attorney, retired judge, or Arbiter in good standing with an arbitration group. The Arbiter must arbitrate under AAA or JAMS consumer rules. You may get a copy of these rules from such group. Any rules that conflict with any of our agreements with you, don't apply. If these options aren't available, and the parties can't agree on another, a court may choose the group. The parties will then obtain an Arbiter under such group's rules. Such Arbiter must enforce your agreements with us, as they are written.
Will the hearing be held nearby?	Yes.	The Arbiter will order the hearing within 30 miles of your home or where the transaction occurred.
What about appeals?	Appeals are limited.	The Arbiter's decision will be final. A party may file the Arbiter's award with the proper court. Arbitration will solve appeals of a small-claims court judgement. A party may appeal under the FAA. If the amount in controversy exceeds $1,500.00, a party may appeal the Arbiter's finding. Such appeal will be to a 3-Arbiter panel from the same arbitration group. The appeal will be de novo, and solved by majority vote.

Arbitration Fees and Awards

Will we advance Arbitration Fees?	Yes, but you may pay costs.	We advance your "Arbitration Fees" if you ask us to. This includes filing, administrative, hearing, and Arbiter's fees. You pay your attorney fees and other expenses.
Are damages and attorney fees possible?	Yes, if allowed.	The Arbiter may award the same damages as a court. Arbiters may award reasonable attorney fees, and expenses, if allowed by law.
Will you pay Arbitration Fees if you win?	No.	If the Arbiter awards you funds, you don't reimburse us the Arbitration Fees.
Will you ever pay Arbitration Fees?	Yes/No.	If the Arbiter doesn't award you funds, then you may repay the Arbitration Fees. The Arbiter will decide whether you'll pay. If you must pay Arbitration Fees, the amount won't exceed state court costs.
What happens if you win?	You could get more than the Arbiter awarded.	If an Arbiter's award to you exceeds our last Settlement Offer, we will pay 3 amounts. We will pay the greater of the award amount or $500.00 ("bonus payment"). We will pay your attorney twice the attorney fees conferred ("attorney premium"). If the Arbiter orders, we will pay reasonable expert witness costs and other costs you incurred ("cost premium"). If we never made a Settlement Offer, we will pay the bonus payment, attorney premium, and any cost premium. The Arbiter may order the process for payment. If a law allows you more, this Clause won't prevent such award. We won't seek attorney fees and expenses.
Can an award be explained?	Yes.	A party may request details from the Arbiter, within 14 days of the ruling. Upon such request, the Arbiter will explain the ruling in writing.

Other Options

If you don't want to arbitrate, can you still get a transaction?	Yes. You can get our services and decide not to arbitrate.	Consider these choices: 1. Informal Dispute Resolution. Contact us, and attempt to settle any Disputes. 2. Small-claims Court. Seek to solve Disputes in small-claims court, within state law limits. 3. Get a Lease Without the Clause. Write to us and ask for an Agreement without the Clause. 4. Opt-Out of Arbitration. Sign and then timely opt-out.
Can you opt-out of the Clause?	Yes. Within 60 days.	Write us within 60 calendar days of signing your agreement to opt-out of the Clause for that agreement. List your name, address, account number and date. List that you "opt out." If you opt out, it will only apply to that agreement.
