This is outrageous. You sent me the wrong part. I contacted you for a refund plus shipping costs. You refused to pay the shipping costs, let alone reimburse me for the original shipping costs, so I consented to pay for shipping. This was in addition to the $14.01 I had already paid for shipping. Now you have the audacity to tell me you're keeping the original part and not refunding the money I paid for it????????????

This is criminal.
