Hi Carrie,

I have received your concern for order # 39815290 about not being able to access your account. I understand the importance for us to address your concern and I'd be happy to help.

To resolve this, we advise you to contact Segerstrom Center for the Arts directly and state that your friend transferred you the tickets and you require assistance in accessing them.

For other inquiries, please do not hesitate to send us an email.

I hope that this helps.

Best Regards,

James C.
