I'm reaching out to you because I had a case against Chris Antone as do several other individuals and the court officer can't seem to locate him. I see on the 44th District court's case search that you too had a case and I'm curious as to the results. He is a very bad person with a history of violence and fraud so I'm not certain if I'm going to continue to pursue for fear of retaliation but the more information I can get the better.
