Hi Crystal,

I got your message. I'm in the process of putting my house up for sale. I'll get your AKC papers out to you as soon as I can. I have packed up most of my records for the impending move. If you haven't received them in a month, please touch base with me again. Thanks.

Hi Tara,

Still waiting on that paperwork. I know how hectic a move can be, please let me know when I can expect them.

Good morning,

Tara please respond and let me know when I can expect the akc pedigree papers for my dog. I entered into a contract with you and have held up my end.

Hi Crystal,

I apologize for my late reply. I was recently diagnosed with high blood pressure and the rx they put me on has been totally screwing with my sleep cycle.

We have run into some hiccups with the move and everything is still in storage. I promise, you will get the papers, as soon I as possibly can get to them. I have a priority list of things I need to get done for Euro Boxx once we get slightly settled. You are on that list. I have not forgotten you. I thank you for your patience.

Tara

Tara,
It's now been 5 months since my original request for paperwork. I have been very patient. However, I need my dogs paperwork ASAP if I wanted a dog with no papers. I would have bought a dog for $500. I did not. I made a hefty investment, abided by my contract and would like to settle this. Please have my paperwork sent to my address by Jan 20 which would make the timeline 6 months from the first time I reached out to you about this. Which, in any reasonable persons opinion, is beyond a fair amount of time for such a matter. In case you need more information. The contract is attached in previous emails. If I do not receive my paperwork I will have to take further action, which is a waste of both my time and yours.
Thank you

I just tried to call you and got a message saying calls to your number are being screened by "spam call blocker". Please give me a call and let me know what's going on with my paperwork. I will pursue every legal ave possible. You're obviously perfectly fine to block calls so your fine to pick up the phone and let me know what's going on.
